

Los Alamos County
Mobile home development district (R-6)

List of Permitted Uses

The Los Alamos County Code establishes Zoning Districts as shown on the Official Zoning Map. The R-6 mobile home development district is intended to accommodate mobile home dwelling units and accessory structures and uses where mobile home sites can be rented, owned in fee simple, as part of a condominium, a cooperative or a land lease rental community, and is further intended to maintain and protect a residential character.

The following uses are permitted in the R-6 Districts:

- Dwellings, single-family, detached
- Mobile Homes
- Group homes
- Parks and playgrounds, public and private

In addition, the following uses are permitted with a Special Use Permit in R-6 Districts, which requires review and approval by the Planning and Zoning Commission at a public hearing:

- Home business
- Schools, private or parochial
- Child care centers
- Day care facilities
- Home and Business Services
- Public utilities
- Swimming pools, commercial or clubs

The following uses are permitted as Accessory Uses, incidental and subordinate to the permitted or special use, in R-6 Districts:

- Servant quarters, guestroom
- Home occupations
- Retail businesses
- Day care homes
- Offices professional
- Satellite dish antennas
- Research and development, offices and laboratories
- Research or professional offices (no Laboratories)

Note: This information is for reference purposes only. Other regulations, including provision of sufficient parking, will apply. All new or changed uses may be subject to inspection, licensing and issuance of Certificates of Occupancy. You are advised to contact the Community Development Department (662-8120) for current and specific information.