ENERGY CONSERVATION CODE TRAINING FOR PROFESSIONALS

May 2, 2024 | 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Please join us to learn about energy conservation codes and their purpose, how they are structured, and the various pathways to meet those codes. Of particular focus will be the changes for IECC 2021, which has been approved (with amendments) in New Mexico. This workshop is intended for building officials, architects, contractors, and others interested in the built environment. CEUs will be provided.
