MODIFICATIONS TO THE SOLICITATION AND/OR Q&A

Please note the modifications to the Solicitation and/or questions received and County's answers.

Ref. No.	Modification and/or Question	Answers
1	We do not believe the stated budget is adequate to deliver the outcomes mentioned in the RFP. Does Los Alamos County have any flexibility to increase its budget?	The County reserves the right to modify estimated budgets at any time for any reason. In the event that additional funding becomes available, any contract awarded may, at County's sole discretion, be renegotiated in accordance with County's Procurement Code and procedures. Any contract awarded as a result of this solicitation is contingent upon the availability of funding. Offerors are asked to propose all fees for all services proposed.
2	Did the County received federal funding for this work, and if so, under what grant program?	No
3	As consultants, what activities would we be doing that would require pollution insurance and medical malpractice insurance?	These insurances would not be a requirement in the agreement with the selected Offeror.
